

Environmental Research Summer School, Noto Peninsula, Japan

Institute of Nature and Environmental Technology, Kanazawa University

Date : 2–6 July, 2018

Venue : Research sites of the Institute of Nature and Environmental Technology (INET), Kanazawa University, Japan

Schedule of summer school

- Day 1 (2 July) Travel from Kanazawa to the Marine Research Laboratory of INET
Summer school orientation
- Day 2 (3 July) Marine research activity 1: Marine biology
- Day 3 (4 July) Marine research activity 2: Physical and chemical oceanography
- Day 4 (5 July) Atmospheric research activity
Sustainable development/social science activity: Introduction to the Meister program
- Day5 (6 July) River research activity
Return to Kanazawa University

Fig. Study sites visited during the summer school

Staff : Kanazawa University

Professors: S. Nagao, N. Suzuki, N. Hasebe, K. Hayakawa, and S. B. Pointing (RP)

Associate Professors: A. Matsuki and K. Fukushi

Assistant Professors: T. Sekiguchi, S. Ochiai, T. Matsunaka, and M. Honda

2 July

9:00 Meet at the main entrance of Natural Science and Technology Main Hole in Kanazawa University

9:00–12:00 Travel from Kanazawa University to the Noto Peninsula

12:00–13:00 Lunch

13:00–14:30 Travel from the lunch venue to the Noto Marine Laboratory

15:00–16:30 Orientation and short introductory research presentations by students

17:00–20:00 Welcome party

3 July

20:00–21:00 Lecture: Microbiology of the marine environment (RP)

4 July

20:00–21:00 Lecture: Reporting the results of air pollution monitoring (measured by students during the summer school) (RP)

5 July

20:00–21:00 Farewell party

6 July

14:30 Arrival at the Natural Science and Technology Main Hole in Kanazawa University

15:00-16:00 Closing ceremony of summer school at the special reception room, G1 floor, the Natural Science and Technology Main Hole

Accommodation: Noto Marine Laboratory (2–6 July)

4-1 Ogi, Noto-cho, Housu-gun, Ishikawa 927-0553

Tel: +81-768-74-1151, Fax +81-768-74-1644