

Summer School on Environmental Research

Noto Peninsula, Japan

Date: 5 - 10 July, 2021

Venue: Research sites of the Institute of Nature and Environmental Technology (INET), Kanazawa University, Japan

Cost: 15,000JPY:Accommodation in Noto, travel fee to Marine Research Laboratory, and meals there are included.

Admission deadline: 31 May 2021, e-mail to: kannahon.ka@gmail.com

Outline of summer school schedule

Day 1 (5th Jul, Mon)

Introduction for the summer school

(AM) Limnology: Research on inland water environment

(PM) Radioactivity and its use in environmental science.

Management of Mining and its effects on the environment

Day 2 (6th Jul, Tue)

(AM) Travel to the Marine Research Laboratory of INET

(PM) Geography and geology of Noto

Day 3 (7th Jul, Wed)

Marine research activity 1: Physical and chemical oceanography

Day 4 (8th Jul, Thu)

Marine research activity 2: Marine biology

Day 5 (9th Jul, Fri)

(AM) Sustainable development/social science activity: Introduction to the Meister program

(PM) Atmospheric research lecture

Day 6 (10th Jul, Sat)

(AM) Original vegetation in Noto

(PM) Examination of marine coast and its economical use along Japan sea.

Return to Kanazawa, Closing